Dear Linc:

Thank you for your letter of 16 March, with its information about present plans for the next Indications in Warning seminar. The agenda looks interesting and, to my eye, covers the right subjects. It will be helpful and enlightening to have CINCLANT's commentary, since comments from this quarter will plug what has been something of a conceptual gap in previous sessions.

I would appreciate it if [redacted] could keep my Executive Assistant, [redacted] apprised of any changes in the present tentative schedule. We will forward a list of participants by mid-May and, as always, will be delighted to do anything we can to help you in this important exercise.
